Military Movement.

The second meeting for the purpose of perfecting a military organization, was held last evening at the council room. John B. Bennett, Esq., was chosen president, and N. W. Foster, secretary.

A constitution and code of by-laws were reported, the constitution adopted, and the by-laws deferred until a special meeting. The constitution has been carefully prepared by a competent committee, and cannot fail of pleasing all who may become members, especially those who have a correct understanding of laws necessary for the government of military organizations. Some fifteen members were present, and an earnest desire manifested to organize a company—a company which shall be a source of pride to its members as individuals, and an ornament to the city to which it shall belong.

Many of the prominent men of the city have oftentimes expressed a desire that a company might be organized and perpetuated here; and now that steps have been taken in this direction, we hope to see it encouraged and sustained. From a knowledge of the men who have taken this matter in hand, and from the course they are pursuing in the selection of members, we feel an unusual confidence in its success and permanency. From what we learn of their action last evening, we gather the following as some of the objects sought to be attained: 1st, a well disciplined military company; 2d, a means of social enjoyment to its members and an organization for the developing of the physical faculties; 3d, to promote the general good of its members. Under this latter head comes a constitutional provision for the expulsion of any member who shall become intoxicated while under the jurisdiction of the company or its officers, or who shall visit houses of ill-fame, together with other offences not calculated to inure in the company a spirit of manliness and high-toned dignity.

The leading men are proceeding cautiously, yet determinedly; and their every effort is tending toward efficiency in discipline, as well as keeping to themselves a character—both as members of the corps and as individuals—that shall place them upon a footing above reproach. There are many who will become members of a company when they know it has been founded upon a basis of this character, who now fear that the attaching of themselves to a military company is but a synonym for rowdiness. To those we would say, that what we have stated we know to be true to the letter, and we shall, therefore, expect soon to see a company rise up from among us that will bear a merited name of honor both at home and abroad.

Another point: Janesville has been signalled as the second city in the state in point of population, but we are sorry to say, she is very far indeed from the second in her military accomplishments. Cities claiming two or three thousand less than this claims, have one, two or three companies organized and disciplined, but we have one only, and that still deep in embryo. This city's name and reputation stands high on the ladder of fame, and a fine military company, such as may and can be formed, will place in her crown another brilliant.

Now that a move has been made, we hope it will be carried successfully to the point of permanency—a point which can be reached if those who are willing to become members will but come forward and signify their desire. A committee appointed for that purpose, (and announced elsewhere,) will receive the names of applicants and transfer them to the next meeting of the company. About twenty persons have already become members, and as it requires but forty to make the complement conform to the statutes of the state, we hope an early day will see it obtained. As soon as this number is reached, the elected officers can obtain commissions, arms and equipments can be drawn from the state, and the company immediately placed under drill, and the New Year can usher into our streets a military company that may successfully compete with many if not most of the military companies now in the state.

EARLY HORSE AT THE JUNCTION.—J. W. Blakes & Co. have opened an excellent eating house at the Milton Junction. The various trains meeting there, stop long enough to give the traveler a chance to partake of its bounties.

Wheat. Twenty car loads per day of wheat are sent from this city to Milwaukee. This is double the amount forwarded from any station on the main line of the M. & M. railroad.

A LONG STICK OF CANDY.—Messrs. Ellis & Brother, bankers and confectioners, opposite the American, have hung up in our Sanctum a cane or staff made entirely of sugar candy. It is about four feet long and is rather a striking display of the confectioner's art. The makers of it are second to none in the neatness and good taste which they display in their business.

Badger Base Ball Club will hold a special business meeting at the usual place, on to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at half past 7 o'clock. By order of the President.

The suit brought by Clark, Dodge & Co. against the city of Janesville, have been sent to Jefferson county for trial—the city. They are noticed for trial at the term commencing 11th September next. We understand that the plaintiffs rely upon the reification of the bonds by the city council after the publication of the charter.

POPULATION OF WHITEWATER.—Marshal Terr informs the Register that the population of the village of Whitewater, according to the census just completed, is 3,731. In 1855 the population of the entire town—the village being at that time not incorporated—was 2,324.

Dr. John Favill, of Madison, has been selected by Dr. Clement, the superintendent of the lunatic asylum as his assistant.

Republican Club Meeting.

Mr. Lehabod Coddling of Illinois, will address the republican club on FRIDAY EVENING, Aug. 31st at the Grand Room. Mr. Coddling is one of the most effective speakers in the west, and is well and favorably known in this vicinity, and we bespeak for him a full house. Come one, come all, and listen to this able champion of freedom.

R. B. TREAT, Pres.
A. A. JACKSON, Secy.

At the military meeting last evening, Messrs. W. H. Holt, H. R. Clum and Wm. D. Birt were appointed to receive applications for membership. Any names left with them will be reported to the company, and acted upon immediately.

A CARD.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 28th, 1860.
I take pleasure in stating that I have this day received from the Phoenix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., through the agent in this city, the sum of $700.00, being the full amount covered by policy issued by them to Mr. O. W. D. Andrews, to cover property of his situated in Delavan, Walworth county, Wisconsin, which property has since been totally destroyed by fire.

I cheerfully recommend the "Phoenix" to the patronage of this community, not only because its obligations to me have been fulfilled, but from the fact that I feel satisfied of the solvency and reliability of the institution, and I believe that in the adjustment and payment of losses, its officers are disposed to act fairly and impartially, looking alike to the interests of the assured and the insurer, and dealing justly by both.

I am now a "Phoenix" policy holder, and I hope I may long continue to be one, being satisfied that in this well known company I shall always find reliable indemnity.
(SIGNED) EDWARD MILLER.

LIFE INSURANCE.
Those desiring this safe and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in the Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented" we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAUGHTY, President.
W. H. KELLOGG, Secretary.
Messrs. Platts & Taylor, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this home company, and will also be happy to give information as to the conditions thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal love and disinterestedness to remove forever the only danger which threatened at some distant day to sever the social bond of Union in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which no ruthless hand would ever be reckless enough to violate.

My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. (Cheers.) I have not the slightest objection to telling him all I desire to know upon that question. I brought in this bill to repeal the Missouri restriction.

How Non-Intervention Works.

"I believe that it is the right of the south to demand and the duty of congress to extend, protection of persons and property of every kind (including slavery) in the territories during their territorial state."—Mr. H. J. Johnson.

From Douglas' Speech in the Senate, May 18, 1850.

"It is part of the history of the country that under this doctrine of non-intervention, this doctrine that you call to call squatter sovereignty, the people of New Mexico have introduced and protected slavery in the whole of that territory. Under this doctrine they have converted a tract of free territory into slave territory. Under this doctrine they have extended from the line of the republic of Mexico, not only up to 30 deg. 20 min., but up to 38 deg.—giving you a degree and a half more of slave territory than you ever claimed."

The Seward Meeting—Special Trains on the Railroads.

We are authorized to state, says the Madison Journal of yesterday, that trains will run as follows, on the 12th of September, for the accommodation of persons desirous of attending the Seward meeting in this city:

A train will leave Milwaukee on the morning of the 12th, and arrive at Milton at about 11.15 a. m., at which point trains from the north and south, on the Northwestern road, will connect, and proceed to Madison.

A special train will also be run from Janesville junction, leaving at 10 A. M., for the accommodation from Beloit, on the Chicago and Galena road.

Passengers from La Crosse and other points on the Mississippi river, can connect by boat at Prairie du Chien at 8 o'clock A. M., and arrive at Madison at 12.35 P. M. This train will accommodate all places on the line of the road between Prairie du Chien and Madison.

Should any further arrangements be made, we shall give due notice of the same.

Census Statistics.

In answering a question made to us by a friend, we have had occasion to examine the census returns from the 4th assembly district, in reference to the number of farms under cultivation. As this information may be interesting to some of our readers, we give the result of our examination, together with the population in each town:

|-------------|--------------|---------------|-------------------|---------------------|
| Pulaski. | 1,829 | 128 | 10,543 | 1,280 |
| Portage. | 1,290 | 129 | 12,745 | 8,712 |
| Union. | 1,821 | 170 | 10,432 | 8,800 |
| Grant. | 1,128 | 128 | 10,432 | 14,419 |
| Janesville. | 4,066 | 128 | 10,563 | 4,456 |

A township, as our readers all know, consists of 36 sections, and each section containing 640 acres, the number of acres in each of these towns is 23,240. By some means the town of Union returns a larger number of acres than the town contains. The returns are intended to include only the farms taken up and cultivated, separating the cultivated and uncultivated portions. In these five towns the whole number of acres is 116,200; the number of cultivated acres returned is 64,577, or more than one-half of the entire area of the towns.

The following is a comparison of the population of these towns in the years 1850, 1855 and 1860.

| Town. | 1850. | 1855. | 1860. |
|-------------|-------|-------|-------|
| Pulaski. | 885 | 1,280 | 1,829 |
| Portage. | 885 | 1,165 | 1,290 |
| Union. | 1,050 | 1,277 | 1,821 |
| Grant. | 581 | 967 | 1,128 |
| Janesville. | 2,935 | 4,066 | 4,066 |

In 1850, Janesville town and Janesville city were in the same corporation and had 3,437 inhabitants. The Janesville city assembly district is the only other district yet returned. In 1850, the city and town had, as above stated, a population of 3,437; in 1855, the city alone, (which had then been set off from the town,) had 7,018, and in 1860, it has 7,805.

The following is a comparison of the different wards in the city for the years 1855 and 1860.

| Ward. | 1855. | 1860. |
|-----------|-------|-------|
| 1st Ward. | 3,457 | 1,772 |
| 2d " | 2,280 | 1,280 |
| 3d " | 785 | 1,040 |
| 4th " | 2,935 | 3,167 |

The population of the city in 1850 was 20,727; in 1855, 31,364.

SEWARD MEETING AT MILWAUKEE.

We are gratified to learn from a letter of Senator Seward to a member of the committee, that he will in all probability be in this city on the 7th of September, and then address the people.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Fifteen Years Ago.

The present number of our weekly commences the sixteenth year of its publication. On the 14th day of August, 1845, the first number was printed, and in a period of 15 years but two weeks have been lost by a suspension of its regular issue. Probably no paper in the state can show a more regular or uninterrupted publication than the Gazette, and certainly none have exhibited a more steady growth and prosperity. Commencing with a size that would now be regarded as diminutive even in a new corner in the sparsely settled communities of the northern counties of the state, and with a circulation that would deter even an adventurous speculator of modern days from assuming the responsibility of a new paper, it has gradually attained a size and circulation which places it in the very front rank of the newspapers of Wisconsin.

As a matter of personal interest, we had designed to accompany the announcement of the commencement of our sixteenth volume with a list of the names of the subscribers who gave encouragement to the doubtful enterprise of a newspaper in the infant village of Janesville; but on looking for the first subscription book, we are not able to find it among the "early records" of our office. Some of the names then "on the book" have been continued without intermission, and now weekly receive the journal they aided fifteen years ago to life and being. Others have disappeared from our subscription list, and have closed all early accounts, and the scenes of a world unknown to those who yet act their part in a community which has reached an age of vigorous manhood have been exchanged for the stirring events succeeding their departure from an active and eventful stage.

We have, however, in the bound volume preserved by Mr. Alden, the first publisher of the Gazette, a record which possesses not only personal but public interest. Some of the incidents of personal interest we shall hereafter extract from this repository of the past, but must content ourselves to-day with a glance at some of the public events which were recorded in its columns.

The first article on the inside of the first number is the proceedings of a territorial whig convention, held at Madison, to nominate a delegate to congress. E. V. Whiton presided at this convention, L. P. Harvey, then a delegate from Racine county, and C. C. Washburne were secretaries. The delegates from Rock county were E. V. Whiton, Herman Murray, David J. Bundy and J. S. Lane. Col. James Collins, of Iowa county, was nominated for delegate, after an informal ballot, by the following vote: Col. Jas. Collins 34, Jonathan E. Arnold 25, A. L. Collins 11. Mr. Arnold is now the democratic candidate for the same place from the 1st district.

We next find the sentence of the court upon Henry G. Green, the wife murderer in Troy, New York. John Van Buren was the then attorney general and conducted the prosecution. John C. Spencer was one of the counsel for the prisoner.

Coming into the editorial department we find the introductory of Mr. Alden, the editor; a request to those friends who have received prospectuses of the Gazette to obtain as many subscribers as possible, and return the list promptly, and other usual matters connected with a new paper. The claims of Col. Collins, as delegate to congress, were warmly urged, and the following paragraph sounds a good deal like those of later days:

"We have assurances upon which we place great reliance, that the nomination of Col. Collins, a great change has taken place in Iowa and Grant counties, and in the western part of the territory generally, in favor of the whigs. Our candidate, being very popular, has not to contend against the 'hero of the Sauk fess,' and moreover was himself an officer in that war."

Notwithstanding this gratifying prospect, and getting rid of the popularity of Gen. Dodge as a competitor, Col. Collins was defeated, and Morgan L. Martin elected.

"The annexation of Texas is at last accomplished," says this chronicle of the olden time, and the next paragraph states that A. Hyatt Smith has been appointed attorney general of Wisconsin, vice Wm. P. Lynde resigned.

In another column is a notice of Hussey's reaper, in connection with the fact that Jackson & Tompkins have just finished cutting a small field of 200 acres of wheat, and next fall they intended to get in 300 acres. At that time Rock county raised winter wheat, and Mr. Jackson, as now, was an extensive grower of grain.

The "enterprising citizens" of Racine were then working at their harbor, having removed the rock at its mouth, and the north pier was soon to be completed.

The post office at Racine, even in these early days, was a source of trouble. Dr. Elias Smith was removed, because he was a whig, and a brother in the profession, Dr. Carey, appointed in his place. Dr. Carey, after himself subsequently coming under the axe, succeeded in getting back into the place he held in 1845, and died while an incumbent of the office.

Under the head "By Last Night's Mail," we find a report of one of the rows among the Philadelphia firemen which has given that city such an unenviable notoriety.—Next comes speculations from Mexico as to the probabilities of peace or war. As usual, the reports were contradictory, and the war which afterwards made Gen. Taylor president, and will give historic celebrity to Buena Vista, Monterey, Churubusco and other localities, was confined to paper pistols and unmeaning diplomacy.

Among the "notices," after getting thro' the reading department, we find a call for a democratic county convention to nominate a representative to the legislative assembly and county officers. This call is signed by John L. Kimball, Orrin Guernsey, John P. Dickson and John J. R. Pease. Each of these "old line" democrats is now an active, influential and true republican.—"Such are time's changes."

In the obituary department, the deaths of the wife and child of Charles Stevens are recorded. Mrs. Stevens was the first white woman who lived in Janesville, and this recurrence to her death will awaken many memories among those early settlers who have survived her.

There are other matters that might be extracted from this first number of the first paper printed Janesville, and which the first issue of the 16th volume would appropriately resuscitate, but the limits to which we are restricted admonish us to close our work of review. We may, hereafter, go again into the store-house of the old file, and extend our research beyond the first number; but to-day we must be content with the exploration already made. Perhaps, in a day or two, we shall take a look at our first advertisers.

Gov. Seward at Madison.

As the inquiry has been made of why the announced day on which Gov. Seward has been changed from the 11th to the 12th of September, we make the explanation that the announcement of the 11th was taken from the Milwaukee Sentinel. The authority for now making it the 12th is thus given by the Madison Journal of Monday afternoon:

"Gov. Seward, in response to a request that he would change his rumored appointment on the 8th, to the next week, as late as the 11th, replied by telegraph that he would speak here on the 11th or 12th of September, as the Central Committee might choose, and asked to be informed by telegraph which day was preferred. The 12th was selected as the better day, and Mr. Seward informed accordingly. The announcement of the fact was made by the Central Committee in this paper on Friday, and was published in the Milwaukee Free Democrat Saturday. Yet the Sentinel of this morning announces Sept. 11th as the day."

The announcement of the state committee in the Journal escaped our attention, or we would have avoided the error of the Sentinel. The committee of arrangements for the Seward meeting, at Madison, have invited Hon. Schuyler Colfax, of Ind., and Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky, to be present on the 12th of September, and address the people.

Gen. Atwood has been appointed Marshal of the day, with power to employ as many assistants as he shall see fit.

There is some talk of holding the afternoon meeting on the State Fair Grounds. The matter is not yet decided upon.

The 12th is the day on which the republican nominating convention for this county will be held, and to that extent will interfere with an attendance from the county. It would, of course, be impossible to fix any day perfectly convenient to everybody, and though the day selected will prevent some individuals from attending who would have been present if some other day had been chosen, there is no reason to doubt that a very large number from Rock county will visit Madison on the 12th.

A CORRECTION.—We understand that it was stated in a meeting of the farm mortgagors at Milton, this week, that the editors of the Gazette had refused to publish the proceedings of such meetings, and that it would, therefore, be useless to forward the doings of that meeting for publication in our paper. This is entirely a mistake. We have never refused to publish the proceedings of any such meeting. On the contrary we are quite willing and anxious to do so, as a part of the news of the day.

We desire to say, in this connection that we are not opposed to any lawful effort that may be made by the farm mortgagors to demonstrate to the courts and to the world that the mortgages in question were obtained by fraud, and that there was no consideration for them, save that received by the whole community in the rise in the value of property consequent upon the building of the railroads. We desire to see these mortgagors relieved of the burden cast upon them by some equitable arrangement in the matter, if it is possible to be done; and we sympathize with all meetings, associations and leagues which have this for their object. Since the decision of the supreme court, we see no practicable measure of relief presented except a compromise among the parties. We have uniformly recommended this to both parties, and we understand that the holders of the mortgages are willing, generally to adjust them by a renewal at 30 to 70 per cent. We think this better than a long lawsuit, with an uncertain result in the future.

MEETING AT ROCKFORD.—The president of the republican club of this city has received a letter from E. H. Baker, Esq., president of the Rockford club, extending a cordial invitation to the republicans of this city and vicinity, to attend the mass meeting to be held in that city on Saturday, September 1st. He adds "that the northern Illinois strongholds have no sympathy for Douglas, but great gains for Lincoln and the right."

The Chicago and Northwestern railroad will, doubtless, take passengers to Rockford and return at half fare.

Cassius M. Clay and other eloquent speakers will be present. We hope our republican friends will see that Rock county is well represented on that occasion.

We understand that U. S. Deputy Marshal McCarthy and nine assistants from Fond du Lac, undertook to arrest Booth at Ripon on Monday, and that some seventy of the people of that place and vicinity resisted them with force and arms. No bloodshed, but the marshal retired without accomplishing his object. As the marshal and his posse were leaving, Booth came forward and proposed to make a speech to them, which they declined, considerably disgusted at the proposition.

P. S. The Milwaukee News locates this affair at a house belonging to J. G. Pickett, seven miles from Oshkosh, and gives a long account of the terrible but bloodless battle.

The Horse Show and Equestrian Fair.

We think our residence in Wisconsin, and our course as a journalist, warrants the assertion that we are not in the habit of indiscriminate puffing. If we cannot speak in praise of men and things, our charity often induces us to remain silent. This, we think, is pardonable. But were we, from selfish motives, or to gratify the vanity or cupidity of others, to speak in commendatory terms of any enterprise which we knew to be unworthy of our praise, we should render ourselves justly liable to public censure. This we never have done, nor shall we ever willingly do so. We make these remarks as prefatory to what we are about to say, and as explanatory of what we have heretofore said of the National Horse Show and Ladies Equestrian Fair to be held in this city, commencing on the 4th of September next.

Were there no other guarantee that this show will not be of a humbug class, we have but to refer to the names of those of our people of the city, county and state who have been designated as committeemen to award the different premiums. Besides this all the arrangements necessary to make the coming exhibition a decided success, have been completed, and we think they are perfect in themselves. Everything that can be done to secure the comfort of the large crowd expected has been attended to. The seats are commodious and secure. The grounds have been well and tastefully laid out, and during this dry and dusty weather, the managers have procured the track to be sprinkled with water every day, so, that even should there be no rain before the fair, the assemblage will not be annoyed by the dust arising from the track.

This will be the sixth fair of its kind held under the management of Mr. Smith, and we are assured that from the first to the last each has been an improvement on the other. We can but hope that this, the first of its kind in Wisconsin, will be the best of them all.

A day or two since we invited everybody to come to the fair—everybody but the old bachelor. There is an old fellow takes exception to the exclusion. We shall reconsider that act and allow the fair to take the old bachelor in; and may Heaven in its kindness have mercy upon his indurated heart.

From the Evansville Journal, Aug. 25.

Liberty of Speech in Southern Indiana.—"Outragious Assault upon a Republican Meeting—A Democratic Official and the Speeches of the Firing upon an Unoffending Crowd."

According to previous announcement, a republican mass meeting was held last night in Newburgh, Warwick county. A most infamous attempt was made by a few ruffians of that place to break it up. The result of writing this is late, and we can only give a brief sketch of the proceedings on the occasion. We shall have something farther to say in our next issue.

The Wide Awakes, to the number of about 250, accompanied by the Crescent City Band and Glee Club, chartered the Charley Bowe, and, starting at seven o'clock, arrived there about nine. The companies, on disembarking, formed in line and started for the place of speaking.

They marched up State street to the intersection of Second, and halted in front of Phelps' corner. Immediately on landing they were met with taunts, epithets, and cries of "nigger thieves," "abolitionists," "John Brownites," "Ossawatimies," and all such infamous slang, which was kept up all along the line of march, and at the stand.

After music by the band, Hon. H. W. Ellsworth was introduced by James G. Jones, Esq., and began by making a calm, dispassionate speech, half an hour long. The interruptions were so constant and so loud that many doubted whether he could brave it out; but he did, and made a telling speech.

The Glee Club then sang a song, and Mr. J. G. Jones arose to speak. He said he had heard cries of "woolly head," and "nigger equality." Such cries, said he, could only come from men who were infinitely below the negroes.

Here the din became deafening. It proceeded from a small squad of ruffians, led by the marshal of the town—a blood-thirsty miscreant named Sol. Koker. Peaceable attempts having been made to quiet the noise, a few of the Wide Awakes surrounded the ruffians in order to take them away. Koker and two others then drew pistols, and Koker flourished a bowie knife and defied the peace makers. Suddenly he fired on the Wide Awakes, and then two other shots were fired. The first struck Mr. M. B. Suter, a member of company C, Wide Awakes, in the right shoulder, making a painful wound, but not serious.

A portion of the Wide Awakes recoiled from this unexpected attack, but soon rallied, and made a rush for the ruffians. One of the latter, named Bill Lee, was made to bite the dust. Koker fled towards the river, and by dint of skillful dodging narrowly escaped being handed over to the law. Mr. Stephen Sharp, a Wide Awake, was struck in the head with a stone and stunned for a short time. The affray at one time threatened serious results, but luckily no one was killed.

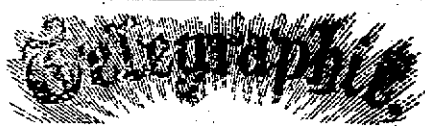

The meeting being over, the band played an enlightening tune, and the Wide Awakes fell into line, and marched to the boat in perfect order. The gibes of the ruffians were but badly heard. The Wide Awakes, as they had done during the whole evening except when the speakers were interrupted, paid no attention to the insults thrown at them, but acted as respectable men should. They arrived at home about half past twelve o'clock.

Most of the citizens of Newburgh, and many of those from the interior of the county present, were extremely mortified over the disgrace which had fallen on their town and county. They were it to themselves, and believe they will see the outraged law vindicated, and their town and county relieved, as far as possible, from the disgrace resting on them.

We regret very much to implicate any citizens of reputable name in this shameful interruption of a peaceable meeting; but it is well known, and can be proven by twenty or more witnesses, that Captain T. F. Bethell, formerly representative from Warwick in the legislature, and Nathan Platts, president of the county agricultural society, both leaders of the democracy, and heretofore regarded as order-loving and respectable men, were prominent in disturbing the peace themselves, and instigating the ruffians who attempted to commit murder in their attempt to stifle free speech in a free state.

We shall close by remarking that Koker is a prominent democrat, and is now the democratic nominee for coroner of Warwick county.

At Bloomington the Douglas men undertook to raise a pole 217 feet high when it broke about 50 feet from the ground and fell with a crash. No one injured.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

We have no eastern report to-day.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 29.
Up to noon to-day there was an active demand for wheat, and in several instances as high as 92c was paid for No. 1 in store, but an advance in freights being reported the market closed rather heavy, and a decline. Sellers offered at 91c but were not taken. Milling wheat sold at 94c and some inferior lots at 93c, delivered. Flour is quiet at previous quotations, with few sales on private terms. Freights have advanced again and are quoted from 15c to Buffalo. Weather cool and clear, wind east. Flour market quiet and unchanged, sales 1000 barrels Washington and 200 barrels country spring extra on p. p. 23 barrels Mazomanie do at 5.00 delivered. Barley, sales 200 bushels No. 1 at 53c.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

A HEAVY PURCHASE.—We understand that the Hon. Wm. B. Ogden, of Chicago, has purchased two-thirds of the great iron mill of Knapp, Wilkins & Co., Pittsburg. At a cash valuation this property is worth $1,200,000. Mr. Ogden paid for it in lands. The mill is in excellent order, and is doing a very heavy business.

Gov. Banks' contemplated removal to Chicago, creates a great sensation in Massachusetts. His pay as managing director of the Illinois Central, will be from $7,500 to $10,000.

A LONG PULL IN A ROW BOAT.—Mr. D. U. Martin, the gentleman who left Boston some two weeks ago in a little two oared wherry, arrived safe in New York Thursday evening about 5 1/2 o'clock, having accomplished his extraordinary feat in about 80 hours of actual rowing, averaging over five miles per hour. He subsisted almost wholly on berries and other fruit, drinking no water; the last day's pull from a place ten miles east of Sandy Point, was accomplished after a late breakfast, a portion of one watermelon only serving for his refreshment. The New York vegetarians were to give Mr. M. a public dinner.

PARTY GOOD YIELD.—Gideon Morey, of Yorkville, says the Racine Journal, sowed on seven acres of land, ten bushels of wheat, from which he measured from the machine two hundred and eighty bushels of wheat; making forty bushels to the acre, and twenty-eight bushels for each one sown.

PRAYING FOR RAIN.—We learn from the Mobile Mercury that a meeting was had lately in the northern part of Rankin county, Alabama, to pray for rain.

THE MORMONS COMING TO NAVUVO.—Joe Smith—the younger—who was made head of their church at their meeting last year, in Ambury, Lee county, Ill., is now calling the faithful home to the scene of their ancient temple, in Navuvo, Ill. The citizens of that vicinity are getting excited over it, and have called a public meeting to try and prevent the step.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Military Movement.

The second meeting for the purpose of perfecting a military organization, was held last evening at the council room. John B. Bennett, Esq., was chosen president, and N. W. Foster, secretary.

A constitution and code of by-laws were reported, the constitution adopted, and the by-laws deferred until a special meeting. The constitution has been carefully prepared by a competent committee, and cannot fail of pleasing all who may become members, especially those who have a correct understanding of laws necessary for the government of military organizations. Some fifteen members were present, and an earnest desire manifested to organize a company—a company which shall be a source of pride to its members as individuals, and an ornament to the city to which it shall belong.

Many of the prominent men of the city have oftentimes expressed a desire that a company might be organized and perpetuated here; and now that steps have been taken in this direction, we hope to see it encouraged and sustained. From a knowledge of the men who have taken this matter in hand, and from the course they are pursuing in the selection of members, we feel an unusual confidence in its success and permanency. From what we learn of their action last evening, we gather the following as some of the objects sought to be attained: 1st, a well disciplined military company; 2d, a means of social enjoyment to its members and an organization for the developing of the physical faculties; 3d, to promote the general good of its members. Under this latter head comes a constitutional provision for the expulsion of any member who shall become intoxicated while under the jurisdiction of the company or its officers, or who shall visit houses of ill-fame, together with other offences not calculated to detract from the company a spirit of manliness and high-toned dignity.

The leading men are proceeding cautiously, yet determinedly; and their every effort is tending toward efficiency in discipline, as well as keeping to themselves a character—both as members of the corps and as individuals—that shall place them upon a footing above reproach. There are many who will become members of a company when they know it has been founded upon a basis of this character, who now fear that the attaching of themselves to a military company is but a synonym for rowdiness. To those we would say, that what we have stated we know to be true to the letter, and we shall, therefore, expect soon to see a company rise up from among us that will bear a merited name of honor both at home and abroad.

Another point: Janesville has been signalled as the second city in the state in point of population, but we are sorry to say, she is very far indeed from the second in her military accomplishments. Cities claiming two or three thousand less than this claims, have one, two or three companies organized and disciplined, but we have one only, and that still deep in embryo. This city's name and reputation stands high on the ladder of fame, and a fine military company, such as may and can be formed, will place in her crown another brilliant.

Now that a move has been made, we hope it will be carried successfully to the point of permanency—a point which can be reached if those who are willing to become members will but come forward and signify their desire. A committee appointed for that purpose, (and announced elsewhere,) will receive the names of applicants and transfer them to the next meeting of the company. About twenty persons have already become members, and as it requires but forty to make the complement conform to the statutes of the state, we hope an early day will see it obtained. As soon as this number is reached, the elected officers can obtain commissions, arms and equipments can be drawn from the state, and the company immediately placed under drill, and the New Year can usher into our streets a military company that may successfully compete with many if not most of the military companies now in the state.

EARLY HORSE AT THE JUNCTION.—J. W. Blakes & Co. have opened an excellent eating house at the Milton Junction. The various trains meeting there, stop long enough to give the traveler a chance to partake of its bounties.

Wheat. Twenty car loads per day of wheat are sent from this city to Milwaukee. This is double the amount forwarded from any station on the main line of the M. & M. railroad.

A LONG STICK OF CANDY.—Messrs Ellis & Brother, bankers and confectioners, opposite the American, have hung up in our Sanctum a cane or staff made entirely of sugar candy. It is about four feet long and is rather a striking display of the confectioner's art. The makers of it are second to none in the neatness and good taste which they display in their business.

Badger Base Ball Club will hold a special business meeting at the usual place, on to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at half past 7 o'clock. By order of the President.

The suit brought by Clark, Dodge & Co. against the city of Janesville, have been sent to Jefferson county for trial—the city. They are noticed for trial at the term commencing 11th September next. We understand that the plaintiffs rely upon the reification of the bonds by the city council after the publication of the charter.

POPULATION OF WHITEWATER.—Marshal Terr informs the Register that the population of the village of Whitewater, according to the census just completed, is 3,731. In 1855 the population of the entire town—the village being at that time not incorporated—was 2,394.

Dr. John Favill, of Madison, has been selected by Dr. Clement, the superintendent of the lunatic asylum as his assistant.

Republican Club Meeting.

Mr. Leabod Coddling of Illinois, will address the republican club on FRIDAY EVENING, Aug. 31st at the Grand Room. Mr. Coddling is one of the most effective speakers in the west, and is well and favorably known in this vicinity, and we bespeak for him a full house. Come one, come all, and listen to this able champion of freedom.

R. B. TREAT, Pres.
A. A. JACKSON, Secy.

At the military meeting last evening, Messrs. W. H. Holt, H. R. Clum and Wm. D. Birt were appointed to receive applications for membership. Any names left with them will be reported to the company, and acted upon immediately.

A CARD.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., July 28th, 1860.
I take pleasure in stating that I have this day received from the Phoenix Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., through the agent in this city, the sum of $700.00, being the full amount covered by policy issued by them to Mr. O. W. D. Andrews, to cover property of his situated in Delavan, Walworth county, Wisconsin, which property has since been totally destroyed by fire.

I cheerfully recommend the "Phoenix" to the patronage of this community, not only because its obligations to me have been fulfilled, but from the fact that I feel satisfied of the solvency and reliability of the institution, and I believe that in the adjustment and payment of losses, its officers are disposed to act fairly and impartially, looking alike to the interests of the assured and the insured, and dealing justly by both.

I am now a "Phoenix" policy holder, and I hope I may long continue to be one, being satisfied that in this well known company I shall always find reliable indemnity.

LIFE INSURANCE.
Those desiring this safe and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in the Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

Superior Advantages.
While other companies demand that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented" we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by

BUMP & GRAY,

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, August 23, 1860.

There has been less excitement in the grain market to-day, buyers seeming considerably cooled off since yesterday. Receipts were fully 7000 bushels, which sold at 75c for milling spring and 75c for shipping, closing with good demand at the market. Receipts of oats were very light, not enough to supply city demand. We quote them in demand at 10c per bushel. Other grains unchanged. The latest advices from the lake shore and eastern markets were favorable, consequently we look for fair prices for a while hence.

We make up prices as follows:

OATS—In demand at 10c per bushel.

BARLEY—range from 25c per 50 lbs. for common to fair.

POTATOES—plenty at 25c per bushel.

BUTTER—rather scarce at 12c.

EGGS—green, a better supply have declined to 5c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 10c; Dry, salted, 10c; Dry, flint, 12 to 15c.

POULTRY—spring at 2.50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—chickens, 6c; turkeys, 75c.

WOOL—range from 25c per pound for common to best clip, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Wheat advanced during the week 10 to 12 cents per bushel. No 1 spring sold at 84c, No 2 82c; No 1 red winter 80c, No 2 78c. Flour advanced 10c to 15c on choice spring extras. Oats in store, fair request. Barley 45c to 50c. Rye 45c to 50c. Hides in fair request at 10c to 12c.
